Senior Citizens Advisory Commission
Community Feedback Survey

The Senior Citizens Advisory Commission was established in 1976 to provide recommendations to City Council on topics of interest to citizens ages 50+. The City of Henderson has been acknowledged as an AARP Age-Friendly city where cities are assessed on eight domains of livability.

Please provide feedback about something that is working well and an area of opportunity in each of the eight domains of livability.

1. Transportation – Public access, reliable, affordable, convenient, visible.

2. Social Participation – Opportunity to be involved in community, access to volunteer, convenient locations, affordable events, variety of activities.

3. Outdoor Spaces and Buildings – Green spaces, safe streets, sidewalks, outdoor seating, accessible buildings.

4. Housing – Ability to age in the community, affordability, maintenance, safety.

5. Communication and Information – Effective communication system, regular distribution of information, printed option, access to computers, consistent outreach.

6. Community and Health Services – Health and community support services offered, home care services, access to health services, respectful staff.

7. Respect and Social Inclusion – The community's ability to include and value participation of our 50+ residents.

8. Civic Participation and Employment – Opportunities exist within the community to allow seniors to contribute to the community through work or volunteerism.
